

Chautauqua Watershed Conservancy

Upcoming Events

Saturday, January 16th:

9:00 — 10:00 am

Morning Watershed Hike/Snowshoe Tour — Join Watershed Notes contributor Susan Songster-Weaver for a hike/snowshoe tour of CWC's Dobbins Woods Preserve on Bly Hill Road in Ashville. (Bring your own snowshoes.)

Thursday, January 21st:

7:00 — 8:00 pm

Movie Night — View "After The Storm," a ½-hour DVD co-produced by the EPA and The Weather Channel showing the pollution impacts of stormwater on waterways. A Q&A session will follow. Held at the Community Center in Celoron.

Saturday, January 30th:

10:00 — 11:00 am

Morning Watershed Walk — Join CWC Director and JCC Biology Professor Rebecca Nystrom for a tour of CWC's proposed Goose Creek Preserve on Route 394. Group will re-gather at the Ashville General Store for warm beverages after the tour.

Saturday, February 20th:

10:00 — 11:00 am

Morning Wetland Walk — Join CWC Executive Director John Jablonski for a tour of CWC's Elm Flats Preserve on Lawson Road in the Town of Chautauqua.

Saturday, March 13th:

9:00 — 10:00 am

Morning Watershed Walk — Join CWC Director and ornithologist John Rappole for a tour of CWC's Outlet Preserve on Fluvanna Avenue Extension just west of Jamestown and perhaps see some migrating tundra swans or other birds!

NOTE: All events are open to everyone free of charge unless otherwise noted.

Please wear appropriate outerwear and footwear for preserve hikes and tours.

Please register for all events by emailing info@chautauquawatershed.org or calling 716-664-2166.